Surrounded

This week, I have been thinking a lot about Hebrews chapter 12 where it talks about how "we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses." The witnesses that are referenced there are all the faithful men and women of God who are no longer with us physically, but are still surrounding us spiritually. Like a cheering crowd at a ball game, these servants are watching us and urging us forward, so that we will stand alongside them next to God's Throne. We may not see them, or hear them, or be able to touch them, but they are there calling us home.

As time passes, the crowd of witnesses grows in numbers. We mourn the loss of our dear friends and family, but we know that they are still with us in spirit. They watch in expectation of the day of our reunion. They bask in the glory of our Lord and desperately want us to know what it is like to be in His presence. Let's not disappoint them, instead let us "fix our eyes on Jesus" and finish the race with a strong kick.
